

Brief Guide to Working with My College QuickStart:

Welcome message appears once create the account:

Congratulations on taking the PSAT/NMSQT as a sophomore. If the test seemed hard, remember - it's designed for juniors. Don't feel discouraged if your scores seem low. Look at your percentiles to compare your performance to that of other sophomores. Also remember that your projected SAT score ranges don't take into account the learning and growth you'll experience before you take the SAT. So don't focus on your scores. Your PSAT/NMSQT results will improve the longer you're in school, the more courses you take, and the harder you work.

DEMO: <https://quickstart.collegeboard.org/posweb/loginbyepl.jsp?daun=uvdfglsczt>

Create an account with the CollegeBoard:

1. Create an account with the CollegeBoard. This account will be the same account that you will use to register for the SAT when the time comes for that, so don't lose your password info.
 - a. Username: First and Last initials plus ID #
 - b. Password: of your choice
2. Go to <https://quickstart.collegeboard.org/posweb/login.jsp> and sign in with your new account info.

How to Review Scores:

1. Click on "My online score report"
2. Review scores, percentiles, etc...
3. Click on the "your answers" tab. Here you can see answers you missed and an explanation. Then click "show answer" and it will show you the correct answer
4. Look in the "reviewing missed questions" section and click on "show answer explanation"

AP Potential:

1. From the score report page, look over to the right, where you should see a pink box that says My AP Potential. Click on View my AP potential.
2. This will help you to see what AP classes might be a good fit for you to take in the near future.

My SAT Study Plan:

1. Click on one of the test sections to review your weak areas
2. Click on one of the bars that seems to be lower than the others
3. Click on the skill you identified as a problem area and then review your incorrect answers
4. Then try answering the questions again and read the answer explanations
5. You can also try practicing more questions like this by clicking the "Practice Now" button, you can even change the level of hardness of the questions.
6. You can repeat steps 1-5 above to practice for the SAT. This is free to you and of great value.

My Colleges

1. CollegeBoard shows a starter list of colleges that offer the major students selected.
2. Click on "Bethel College" (links to BigFuture)
3. Review briefly info on the main page.
4. Click on "Applying"
5. Highlight how selective the school is, "What's Important", "GPA" and "SAT & ACT scores"
6. Click on "Paying" and explore tabs: "Cost of Attendance", "Fin Aid by the #'s", "Scholarships"
7. Type in "Indiana University Bloomington" to compare same info

Other Useful Sections (time permitting):

1. My Career Matches
2. My Personality

Post Survey to complete, link on Sophomore page