

Penn High School Distinguished Alumni Award

The Penn High School Alumni Association initiated its first Distinguished Alumni Award in 2009. This annual award recognizes Penn High School graduates who have distinguished themselves and serve as positive role models for the students at Penn High School.

The Penn High School Alumni Association also will honor P-H-M staff members who have distinguished themselves while employed at, or retired from, the Penn-Harris-Madison School Corporation.

Selection will be made on the basis of the following criteria:

- An individual must have graduated from Penn High School at least 10 years ago (for alumni) or currently be employed at, or retired from, the P-H-M School Corporation (for staff members)
- How the candidate demonstrated a high level of achievement in his/her field and/or made significant contributions in the community
- How the candidate serves as a positive and inspiring role model for Penn High School students by exhibiting leadership, character and service
